ORDER

1. The Booth Level Officers appointed by the Election Commission of India are entrusted with the responsibility of distribution of voter's slip. They shall visit all the households in the designated jurisdiction and distribute voter's slip on proper acknowledgment. Since most of the Booth Level Officers are Government employees, duty leave has to be sanctioned to them for those days they are engaged in the distribution of voter's slip.

2. In the above circumstances, in connection with the bye-election to five Legislative Assembly Constituencies, Government order that duty leave will be sanctioned to Booth Level Officers of 01-Manjeshwar, 82-Ernakulam, 102-Aroor, 114-Konni and 133-Vattiyoorkavu Legislative Assembly Constituencies for two (2) days on 16.10.2019 and

17.10.2019, to enable them to complete the distribution of voter's slip to the electors of their respective polling booths.

3. All Heads of Departments shall sanction duty leave for the above purpose to those officers under their control, who are appointed as Booth Level Officers of Polling Stations in 01-Manjeshwar, 82-Ernakulam, 102-Aroor, 114-Konni and 133-Vattiyoorkavu Legislative Assembly Constituencies of the State on production of duty certificate duly authorized by the Electoral Registration Officers (Tahsildars) concerned.
